How to Prevent a Divorce.

When the senior Jonathan Trumbull was Governor of Connecticut, a gentleman called at his house, requesting to see His Excellency in Private. Accordingly he was shown into his sanctum sanctorum, and the Governor came forward to meet Squire W., saying, "Good morning, sir; I am glad to see you. Squire W. returned the salutation, adding as he did so, "I have called upon a very unpleasant errand, sir, and want your advice. My wife and I do not live happily together, and I am thinking of getting a divorce. What do you advise, sir?"

The Governor sat a few moments in deep thought, then turning to Squire W.
